Objects

5 The Charity’s objects are specifically restricted to advance the scientific study of nutrition and its application to the maintenance of human and animal health.

Power

6 The Charity has power to do anything which is calculated to further its Objects or is conducive or incidental to doing so and, without prejudice to the foregoing:

6.1 To use any form of media and communication including but not limited to printing and publishing any newspaper, periodicals, books, articles or leaflets using films, television, vision and the internet;

6.2 To arrange and provide for, or join in arranging and providing for, the holding of exhibitions, meetings, lectures, classes, seminars and training courses;

6.3 To raise funds provided that, in doing so, the Charity must not undertake any trading activity in respect of which some or all of the profits are liable to tax;

6.4 To buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;

6.5 To sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property belonging to the Charity. In exercising this power, the Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 36 and 37 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006;
6.6 To borrow money and to charge the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Charity as security for repayment of the money borrowed or as security for a grant or the discharge of an obligation. The Charity must comply as appropriate with sections 38 and 39 of the Charities Act 1993, as amended by the Charities Act 2006, if it wishes to mortgage land;

6.7 To co-operate with other bodies and to exchange information and advice with them;

6.8 To establish or support any body formed for any of the charitable purposes included in the Objects;

6.9 To acquire or merge with any other charity;

6.12 To employ and remunerate such staff or to engage such unpaid agents as are necessary for carrying out the work of the Charity. The Charity may employ or remunerate a Trustee only to the extent it is permitted to do so by Articles 7 to 19 and provided it complies with the conditions in those Articles;

6.13 To:

6.13.1 deposit or invest funds;

6.13.2 engage a Financial Expert as a professional fund manager and to delegate the management of investments to such a manager; and

6.13.3 arrange for the investments or other property of the Charity to be held in the name of a nominee;

6.14 To provide indemnity insurance for the Trustees in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 73F of the Charities Act 1993;

6.15 To enter into contracts to provide services;

6.16 To establish or acquire subsidiary companies; and

6.17 To pay out of the funds of the Charity the costs of forming and registering the Charity both as a company and as a charity.

Application of income and Property

7 The income and property of the Charity shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the Objects.

8 A Trustee is entitled to be reimbursed from the property of the Charity or may pay out of such property reasonable expenses properly incurred by him when acting on behalf of the Charity.

9 A Trustee may benefit from trustee indemnity insurance cover purchased at the Charity’s expense in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 73F of the Charities Act 1993.

10 A Trustee may receive an indemnity from the Charity in the circumstances specified in Article 106.

11 None of the income or property of the Charity may be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of a dividend bonus or otherwise by way of profit to any Member.

Trustees’ Benefits

12 No Trustee or Connected Person may:

12.1 buy any goods or services from the Charity on terms preferential to those applicable to members of the public;

12.2 sell goods, services, or any interest in land to the Charity;

12.3 be employed by, or receive any remuneration from, the Charity;

12.4 receive any other financial benefit from the Charity, unless:

12.4.1 the payment is permitted by Articles 13 to 18; or 12.4.2 The Trustees obtain the prior written approval of the Charity Commission and fully comply with any procedures it prescribes.

A Trustee or Connected Person may receive a benefit from the Charity in the capacity of a beneficiary of the Charity.

13 A Trustee or Connected Person may enter into a contract for the supply of services, or of goods that are supplied in connection with the provision of services, to the Charity where that is permitted in accordance with, and subject to the conditions in, section 73A to 73C of the Charities Act 1993.

Subject to Article 19, a Trustee or Connected Person may provide the Charity with goods that are not supplied in connection with the services provided to the Charity by the Trustee or Connected Person.

14 A Trustee or Connected Person may receive interest on money lent to the Charity at a reasonable rate.
17 A Trustee or Connected Person may receive rent for premises let by the Trustee or Connected Person to the Charity if the amount of the rent and the other terms of the lease are reasonable and provided that the Trustee concerned shall withdraw from any meeting at which such a proposal or the rent or other terms of the lease are under discussion.

18 A Trustee or Connected Person may take part in the normal trading and fundraising activities of the Charity on the same terms as members of the public.

19 The Charity and its Trustees may only rely on the authority provided by Article 15 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:

19.1 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in an agreement in writing between;

19.1.1 the Charity; and

19.1.2 the Trustee or Connected Person supplying the goods ("the supplier") under which the supplier is to supply the goods in question to or on behalf of the Charity.

19.2 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods does not exceed what is reasonable in the circumstances for the supply of the goods in question.

19.3 The other Trustees are satisfied that it is in the best interests of the Charity to contract with the supplier rather than with someone who is not a Trustee or Connected Person. In reaching that decision, the Trustees must balance the advantage of contracting with the Trustee or Connected Person against the disadvantages of not doing so.

19.4 The supplier is absent from the part of any meeting at which there is discussion of the proposal to enter into a contract or arrangement with him or her or it with regard to the supply of goods to the Charity.

19.5 The supplier does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when calculating whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting.

19.6 The reason for their decision is recorded by the Trustees in the minute book.

19.7 A majority of the Trustees then in office are not in receipt of remuneration or payments authorised by Article 12.

20 The Members shall be the persons appointed as Trustees from time to time who have consented in writing to become Members and whose names have been entered into the Register.

21 Membership is not transferable.

22 The Trustees must keep a Register in accordance with the Companies Acts.

23 The Trustees may establish different classes of membership, who shall not be Members, whose rights and obligations shall be recorded in such rules and regulations as the Trustees from time to time shall prescribe.

24 Membership is terminated if:

24.1 the Member dies;

24.2 the Member resigns by written notice to the Charity unless, after the resignation, there would be less than the number of Members required for a quorum at a General Meeting;

24.3 the Member ceases to be a Trustee;

24.4 any sum due from the Member to the Charity is not paid in full within six months of it falling due; or

24.5 the Trustees or a committee of them, after due enquiry, resolve that the interests of the Charity so require.

25 In the event of a person ceasing to be a Member, the date of his cessation as a Member shall be entered in the Register of Members and he will not be entitled to describe himself as being a Member or to any privileges of a Member.

26 The Trustees, or the President, may whenever they or he thinks fit call General Meetings and on the requisition of Members pursuant to the provisions of the Companies Acts shall proceed to convene a General Meeting in accordance with those provisions. If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient Trustees capable of acting to form a quorum any Trustee may call a General Meeting.
Notice of General Meeting

27  A General Meeting shall be called by at least fourteen clear days’ notice.
28  A General Meeting may be called by shorter notice if it is so agreed by a majority in number of Members who together hold not less than 90 percent of the total voting rights at that meeting of all Members.
29  The notice shall contain a statement setting out the rights of Members to appoint a proxy under Section 324 of the Companies Act 2006.
30  The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

Proceeding at General Meeting

31  No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum of Members is present. Unless the Articles otherwise provide, six (6) Members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote on the business to be transacted shall be a quorum.
32  If, within fifteen (15) minutes from the time appointed for the holding of a General Meeting, a quorum is not present or if during a meeting a quorum ceases to be present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week (but if that day falls on a bank or public holiday, the meeting will be held on the first business day (excluding Saturdays and Sundays) after that holiday), at the same time and place, or to such day, time and place as the President, or the Trustees, shall appoint, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within fifteen (15) minutes from the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Members present in person or by proxy shall be a quorum.
33  The President shall preside as chairman at every General Meeting of the Charity or if he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, or shall be unwilling to preside, the Trustees present shall elect one of their number to be chairman of that meeting.
34  The chairman of any General Meeting may with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than business which might properly have been transacted at the meeting had the adjournment not taken place.
35  When a General Meeting is adjourned for fourteen (14) days or more, at least seven (7) clear days’ notice shall be given specifying the time and place of the adjourned meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. Otherwise, it shall not be necessary to give any such notice.

At any General Meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands unless before, or on the declaration of the result of, the show of hands a poll is demanded:

36.1  by the chairman of the meeting; or
36.2  by at least two Members present in person or by proxy having the right to vote on the resolution; or 36.3  by a Member or Members present in person or by proxy representing not less than one tenth of the total voting rights of all the Members having the right to vote on the resolution.

37  Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the General Meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

38  The demand for a poll may be withdrawn before the poll is taken, but only with the consent of the chairman. The withdrawal of a demand for a poll shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand for the poll was made.
39  A poll shall be taken as the chairman directs and he may appoint scrutineers (who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the General Meeting at which the poll is demanded.

40  No poll shall be demanded on the election of a chairman of a General Meeting or on a question of adjournment. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and place as the chairman directs not being more than thirty days after the poll is demanded. The demand for a poll shall not prevent continuance of a General Meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll is demanded. If a poll is demanded before the declaration of the result of a show of hands and the demand is duly withdrawn, the General Meeting shall continue as if the demand had not been made.

41  No notice need be given of a poll not taken immediately if the time and place at which it is to be taken are announced at the meeting at which it is demanded. In other cases at least seven clear days’ notice shall be given specifying the time and place at which the poll is to be taken.
42  A proposed written resolution of the Members pursuant to the Companies Act 2006 lapses if it is not passed before the end of the period of sixty (60) days beginning with its circulation date (as defined in the said Act).
Votes of Members

43 Every Member shall have one vote (whether on a show of hands or on a poll) to be cast by the Member either personally or by proxy.

44 No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the General Meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is tendered and every vote not disallowed at the meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

45 Every Member shall be entitled to appoint another person as his proxy in accordance with the Companies Acts. A proxy does not need to be a Member.

46 Proxies may only be validly appointed by a notice in writing (a “proxy notice”) which states the name and address of the Member appointing the proxy, identifies the person appointed as proxy and the General Meeting in relation to which he is appointed, is signed by or on behalf of the Member or authenticated in such manner as the Trustees may determine.

47 The Trustees may require proxy notices to be delivered in a particular form.

48 Proxy notices may specify how the proxy appointed under them is to vote (or to abstain from voting) on one or more resolutions.

49 Unless a proxy notice indicates otherwise, it must be treated as allowing the person appointed as proxy discretion as how to vote on any ancillary or procedural resolutions put to the meeting and appointing that person as a proxy in relation to any adjournment of the General Meeting to which it relates as well as the meeting itself.

50 The appointment of a proxy and any other authority under which it is executed may:

50.1 in the case of an instrument in writing be deposited at the Office or at such other place within the United Kingdom as is specified in the notice convening the meeting or in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Charity in relation to the meeting not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote; or

50.2 in the case of an appointment contained in a communication in electronic form, where an address has been specified for the purpose of receiving communications in electronic form:

50.2.1 in the notice convening the meeting, or

50.2.2 in any instrument of proxy sent out by the Charity in relation to the meeting, or

50.2.3 in any invitation contained in a communication in electronic form to appoint a proxy issued by the Charity in relation to the meeting.

50.2.4 it shall be received at such address not less than forty-eight (48) hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote;

50.3 in the case of a poll taken more than 48 hours after it is demanded, be deposited or received as aforesaid after the poll has been demanded and not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

50.4 where the poll is not taken forthwith but is taken not more than forty-eight (48) hours after it was demanded, be delivered at the meeting at which the poll was demanded to the chairman of the meeting; and an appointment of proxy which is not deposited, delivered or received in a manner so permitted shall be invalid.

In this Article, “address”, in relation to communications in electronic form, includes any number or address used for the purposes of such communications.

In calculating the periods mentioned in this Article no account shall be taken of any part of the day that is not a working day.

A Member who is entitled to attend, speak and vote at a General Meeting remains so entitled in respect of that meeting or any adjournment of it, even though a valid proxy notice has been delivered to the Charity by or on behalf of that Member. If such a Member attends the General Meeting in person his proxy appointment shall be automatically terminated.

A notice revoking a proxy appointment only takes effect if it is delivered before the start of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which it relates.

An appointment under a proxy notice may be revoked by delivering the Charity a notice given by or on behalf of the person by whom or on whose behalf the proxy notice was given.

If a proxy notice is not executed by the person appointing the proxy, it must be accompanied by written evidence of the authority of the person who executed it to execute it on the appointor’s behalf.
Council

55 There shall be a body of persons known as the Council whose composition, rules and regulations shall be as prescribed by the Trustees from time to time.

56 Members of Council shall have no voting rights and shall not be Trustees or Members.

57 The Council shall be an advisory body who shall consult with and make recommendations to the Trustees which they may or may not choose to implement. Decisions of the Council are not binding on the Trustees.

Sections

58 The Trustees may establish regional branches, known as Sections. Such Sections are not autonomous bodies and shall be bound by Section Rules prescribed by the Trustees from time to time.

59 The day to day management of Sections shall be conducted by a Section Committee as stipulated in the Section Rules.

60 The Trustees shall be entitled to appoint one Member of Council to each of the Sections as an additional member of the Section Committee.

61 Applications for such grants as may be required to meet the expenses of conducting the business of the Sections shall be considered by the Trustees before the Section may incur such expenditure.

62 The Trustees shall consider and either refuse or authorise any recommendations from the Section Committee for the appointment and remuneration of such paid officials as from time to time shall be thought necessary for the satisfactory conduct of the business of the Sections.

63 Any alterations to Section Rules shall not become effective until approved by the Trustees.

64 The Trustees have the power to dissolve Sections and any remaining assets shall be repaid to the Charity.

65 Any assets or funds acquired, received or used by, or under the control of, a Section or its Section Committee shall belong to the Charity at all times.

66 The Trustees have the power to remove a member of a Section Committee.

Election of Officers and the Trustees

67 The officers of the Charity shall be a President, Honorary Secretary, Honorary Treasurer and such others as shall be prescribed by the Trustees in Election Regulations.

68 The President will be elected one year in advance of taking up office. The President shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years.

69 The procedures for the nomination and election by members of the Charity (which may include by postal or electronic ballot) of officers and Trustees shall be defined in Election Regulations (which shall also define those members who can vote) prescribed by the Trustees from time to time.

70 The Trustees may at any time appoint a person to be a Trustee to fill a vacancy in the Trustees. Any Trustees who are appointed shall hold office only until the relevant meeting as prescribed in Election Regulations from time to time in the following year when he shall then be eligible for re-election. Such a period of office shall not be taken into account in determining whether such a person is eligible for re-election.

Trustees

71 A Trustee must be a natural person aged sixteen (16) years or older and no one may be appointed a Trustee if he or she would be disqualified from acting under the provisions of Article 79.

72 The number of Trustees shall not be less than three but shall not be subject to any maximum.

73 The Trustees as at the date of adoption of these Articles are set out below and in Article 74. The Trustee listed in this Article shall retire at the relevant meeting as prescribed in Election Regulations from time to time in the year set out next to their name and shall be eligible for re-election for one further term of three (3) years but having served their maximum term of office shall not be eligible for re-election until one year after their retirement:

Dr Kate Younger 2013
Disqualification, Removal and Resignation of Trustees

79 The office of a Trustee shall be vacated if:
79.1 he ceases to be a Member;
79.2 he dies or becomes subject to a bankruptcy order or interim order or he makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors;
79.3 he is suffering from mental disorder and either is admitted to hospital in pursuance of an application for admission for treatment under any statute for the time being in force relating to mental disorder or an order is made in relation to his personal welfare or property and affairs under legislation relating to mental health or mental capacity;
79.4 by notice in writing to the Charity he resigns his office (but only if the number of Trustees necessary for a quorum at a Trustees’ meeting will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect);
79.5 he is disqualified from acting as a trustee under any statute or ceases to hold office by virtue of any provision of the Companies Acts or is prohibited by law from holding office;
79.6 he has been convicted of any criminal offence, except where the maximum sentence for that offence is a fine;
79.7 he absents himself from the meetings of the Trustees during a continuous period of six months without special leave of absence from the Trustees and they pass a resolution that he has by reason of such absence vacated office;
79.8 he is removed from office by a resolution of the Members duly passed pursuant to Section 168 of the Companies Act 2006; or 79.9 he is directly or indirectly interested in any proposed or actual transaction or arrangement with the Charity and fails to declare the nature and extent of his interest as required by Section 177 of the Companies Act 2006.

Power and Duties of the Trustees

78 Subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts and the Articles, the business of the Charity shall be managed by the Trustees who may exercise all the powers of the Charity. No alteration of the Articles shall invalidate any prior act of the Trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made. The powers given by this Article shall not be limited by any special power given to the Trustees by the Articles and a meeting of the Trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all the powers exercisable by the Trustees.
Proceedings of the Trustees

80  Subject to the Articles, the Trustees may regulate their proceedings as they think fit.

81  Unless otherwise resolved by the Trustees, the Trustees shall meet at least two (2) times each Year.

82  The President may, and on the request of two (2) Trustees shall, at any time call a meeting of the Trustees.

83  The quorum necessary for the transaction of business of the Trustees shall be three Trustees. Questions arising at any Trustees’ meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

84  The President shall be entitled to preside at all meetings of the Trustees. If there shall be no President or if at any meeting he is unwilling to do so or is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting, the Trustees present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.

85  Any of the Trustees, or any committee of the Trustees, can take part in a Trustees meeting or committee meeting by way of a:

85.1  video conference or conference telephone or similar equipment designed to allow everybody to take part in the meeting; or 85.2  series of video conferences or telephone calls from the Chairman.

Taking part in this way will be treated as being present at the meeting. A meeting which takes place by a series of video conferences or telephone calls from the President will be treated as taking place where the President is. Otherwise, meetings will be treated as taking place where the largest group of the participants are or, if there is no such group, where the chairman of the meeting is, unless the Trustees decide otherwise.

86  The Trustees for the time being may act notwithstanding any vacancy in their body but if and so long as their number is less than the number fixed as the quorum it shall be lawful for them to act for the purpose of filling up vacancies in their body or of calling a General Meeting but not for any other purpose.

87  All acts bona fide done by any meeting of the Trustees, or of any committee of the Trustees, or by any person acting as a Trustee, shall notwithstanding it be afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such Trustee, or person acting as aforesaid, or that they or any of them were disqualified from holding office, or had vacated office, or were not entitled to vote, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified and had continued to be a Trustee and had been entitled to vote.

88  A resolution in writing signed or approved by all the Trustees or all the members of any committee of the Trustees entitled to vote on the resolution shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Trustees or of such committee duly convened and held. The resolution may consist of more than one document in the same form each signed or approved by one or more persons.

Declaration of Trustees’ Interests

89  A Trustee must declare the nature and extent of any interest, direct or indirect, which he has in a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Charity or in any transaction or arrangement entered into by the Charity which has not previously been declared. A Trustee must absent himself from any discussions of the Trustees in which it is possible that a conflict will arise between his duty to act solely in the interests of the Charity and any personal interest (including but not limited to any personal financial interest).

Conflicts of Interest

90  If a conflict of interests arises for a Trustee because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person and the conflict is not authorised by virtue of any other provision in the Articles, the unconflicted Trustees may authorise such a conflict of interests where the following conditions apply:

90.1  the conflicted Trustee is absent from the part of the meeting at which there is discussion of any matter affecting that other organisation or person;

90.2  the conflicted Trustee does not vote on any such matter and is not to be counted when considering whether a quorum of Trustees is present at the meeting; and

90.3  the unconflicted Trustees consider it is in the interests of the Charity to authorise the conflict of interests in the circumstances applying.

In this Article, a conflict of interest arising because of a duty of loyalty owed to another organisation or person only refers to such a conflict which does not involve a benefit to a Trustee (as defined in Section 64(2B) Charities Act 1993).
Committees

91 The Trustees may appoint one or more committees consisting of two or more individuals appointed by them at least one of whom must be a Trustee for the purpose of making any inquiry or supervising or performing any function or duty which in the opinion of the Trustees would be more conveniently undertaken or carried out by a committee, provided that all acts and proceedings of any such committees shall be fully and promptly reported to the Trustees.

92 Subject to any rules and regulations that the Trustees may from time to time prescribe, any committee of the Trustees may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business provided always that the quorum shall never be less than three members of the body concerned.

Patrons

93 The Trustees may, at any time and from time to time, appoint any person, whether a Member or not, to be a patron of the Charity. Such offices shall be non-executive officers, carrying no executive duties or responsibilities and no voting powers.

Minutes

94 The Trustees must keep minutes of all:

94.1 Appointments of Trustees and officers made by the Trustees;
